Have you noticed the changed pearance of Higginbotham's re here?

Of course you have, if you ve been over that way lately d nearly everybody has. There ve been some changes made d everybody will agree that all e for the better. It is the same iendly store, but it has been odernized.

The store has taken on a big ty appearance with the merhandise so displayed that it akes you want to walk up and own every aisle and see the nice ew merchandise that seems to e arriving almost daily, includng many articles not formerly andled.

It seems that progress is unerway in Comanche with most verybody wanting to fix up their lace of business and to make it nore attractive.

For years we have been aware f the fact that Harelik's is one f the better drygoods stores in his section, and even that conern is making improvements.

It seems that Comanche ought o adopt a new slogan: "You can find it in Comanche."

People like to trade where they can find a choice of the up-to-date quality merchandise and where prices are right.

Clark Crownover, manager of the Higginbotham drygoods department at Rising Star since 1940, except for the war years, has been promoted and transferred to Comanche, where he will be a buyer for the drygoods division of the Higginbotham organization, assisting Nick Higginbotham at the Comanche headquarters which are under the general management of Tom Beene.

The Rising Star Record says Mr. Crownover is one of the best drygoods men in West Texas.

Mr. Crownover's new duties will include contacts with drygoods departments of all Higginbotham stores, planning and purchasing of stocks and trips to Eastern and other market centers from which Higginbotham's secure merchandise.

Mr. Crownover will retain his home in Aising Star for the present to instruct Doyle Maynard, who was transferred from another department at Rising Star to head the drygoods department there.

* *

Mr. Crownover served in the electronic division of the Naval Aviation Services during World War II. He is past-master of the Rising Star Masonic Lodge; has served on the City Council, and the board of trustee of Rising Star school, and is an ordained deacon in the Baptist Church.

For the past ten years Mr. Crownover has been clerk of the First Baptist Church of Rising Star. Mrs. Crownover is a teacder in the Sunday School and a worker with the WMU.

The Crownovers have one daughter, Mrs. Bob Siekman of Abilene.

Speaking of the move to Comanche, Mr. Crownover had this to say in the Rising Star Record:

"Although we are certainly pleased and grateful tot the Higginbotham management for offering us this new responsibility and promotion where we are to live in another good town, we do regret very much leaving our friends and association in Rising Star.

"Most of our lives have been spent here and it is not easy to part with associations and friends which have become so intimate a part of our lives. We are glad that we are not going far away and that we can return so often to a community we love so much."

—o—

Spring arrived last week, but at this writing it is still cold, although it may be warm by the time you read this, if you ever do.

Sometimes Spring comes on March 20 and sometimes on March 21. This year it came on March 20.

Easter, which comes this year on April 17, will soon be here and all women are expected to have something new to wear and men are expected to put away their old felt hat and don a straw.

However, a few hot days may do more towards making men buy a new straw hat than will the arrival of Easter.

* *

Most peach trees, apples, and plums are in full bloom, but the mesquite trees have not begun to put out yet, which is usually regarded in this section as evidence that winter is over.

—o—

Hamilton bank deposits were up on the last call. The total deposits in the two banks on the last call was $6,394,096 as compored to $6,136,134 on the December call. Combined resources, however, were down $51,801.49.

—o—

Lavish spending and laziness are the two main causes of financial failure.

—o—

Important mail arrived last week for all families in Comanche County when the Post Office Department delivered advance questionaires for the 1960 Federal Census to every post office box and every rural mali box.

Each family is to fill out the form before the arrival of the census taker. The census begins April 1, and will continue through most of the month.

The census taker will copy on forms of his own the information given on the advance forms which you fill out.

Most families will be visited during the first two weeks of April.

The idea behind the advance questionaire is to give everyone time to ponder the questions and provide accurate information.

Information gathered is kept confidential and cannot be used for purposes of taxation, investigation or regulation.

Pages two and three of the questionaire asks about all residents of the dwelling plus anyone who stayed overnight on Thursday, March 31 in your home.

Page four asks about your housing facilities. There are questions about kitchen equipment, water supply, flush toilets, bath tubs and showers. Each householder is also asked to value his dwelling, if he owns one, or otherwiise list his monthly rent.

—o—

Deposits in the Dublin National Bank on the March 15 call were $3,802,569 as compared to $3,667,642 on the same date in 1959.

—o—

—The 32nd Annual Tarleton State College Tri-Area Judging Contest will be held Saturday, April 2. Members from FFA Chapters of Comanche County will take part in the contests.

—o—

Dublin High School's football schedule for 1960, besides games with members of the district—Comanche, De Leon, Hamilton, and Granbury—will include contests with Early, Hico, Cross Plains, Goldthwaite and Ranger.

—o—

The Comanche High School Senior Play, staging its final and third performance last Friday night, was well received by an unusually large crowd of adults. Miss Nobia Dunn, director, who never fails to produce a good play, along with her fine cast, deserves commendations and congratulations for the interesting performance.

—o—

CHS this year stands a good chance to win the District One-Act Play Contest of the Interscholastic League should they choose to enter.

—o—

Comanche County 4-H Adult Leaders Association is to be congratulated on having won an award in the Farm and Ranch Safety Contest, sponsored by the Texas Safety Association.

* *

Mrs. L. M. Richmon, 4-H Adult Leader of De Leon, is also scheduled to receive an individual award.

—o—

With Easter just about here, churches of Comanche County are approaching the revival season when the different churches of the city and county work out plans for a special week or 10 days of spiritual dedication.

The annual revival of the First Methodist Church got underway last Sunday and is scheduled to close Sunday night, April 3.

Rufus Higgs in the Stephenville Empire-Tribune last week, had a discussion on "Old Time Religion."

Rufus, we believe, grew up in and around Tolar, and he may be a little too young to remember all about the old time revivals at their best; but after reading his article, he left no doubt in our mind that he had attended enough of them to know what he was writing about.

According to history, the old fashioned revivals started in America just before, or a little after, the American Revolution. The biggest revivals were held by the Baptists and Methodists. The regular Presbyterians were more like the church members of today; but the Cumberland Presbyterians were experts at holding the old time revivals.

* *

Higgs says that in the revivals of today, we usually have excellent preaching and better than average singing and both seem to go well together, which is pleas-

Complete Wool Sales Records Advises ASC

With the 1959 wool marketing year coming to a close and the 1960 year beginning, growers are reminded of the importance of complete records on their sales of wool and unshorn lambs. Producers will be eligible for payments for the 1959 marketing year for wool and unshorn lambs marketed not later than March 31 of this year. Later marketings will be eligible for payments for the 1960 year.

Oral D. Johnston, Office Manager, Comanche County Agricultural Stabilizatiion and Conservation, reminds wool growers that the sales documents must show the true net sales proceeds, including deductions made for freight and other marketing charges. Where false information is filed, the producer and the wool buyer are subject to penalties.

The average price received by farmers for wool during the entire marketing year can then be calculated and the payment rate announced. Payments to growers will be made sometime during the summer.

Producers who have sold wool and unshorn lambs during the period April 1, 1959 through March 31, 1960 are asked to file original sales documents at the ASC office for use in filing application for incentive payment.

April 30, 1960 is the final date for filing an application for incentiive payment on wool and unshorn lambs sold during the 1959 marketing year, Johnston said. Applications are being taken at the ASC office.

Advance Census Report Forms Reing Distributed

Advance Report Forms for the 1960 Census of Population and Housing are being distributed by the Post Office this week to all households in this area, District Supervisor Max V. Mossholder announced today.

The Advance Report Form is a new census-taking device which is designed to speed up the field canvass and provide more accurate statistics. Distribution of this form before the start of the house-to-house canvass gives the family a chance to assemble information about each member in advance of the census taker's visit. The district supervisor urges all residents to fill out the forms and have them ready for the census takers when they start their rounds on April 1.

The Advance Report Form contains seven questions about every person in the household and six questions about the household's dwelling. The household information asked for is name, address, sex, color or race, month and year of birth, whether married or single, and relationship to head of the household. The information required about the dwelling is the number of rooms, cooking facilities, plumbing, if rented or owned.

At every fourth household, the census taker will seek the answers to additional questions covering population and housing characteristics which are being asked of a 25 percent sample of the nation's population. The sample population questions include inquiries on country of birth, schooling, employment, income, and related items. The additional housing questions relate to rent or value of dwelling, heating equipment, water supply, and other facilities and equipment.

The district supervisor pointed out that information about individuals and their homes furnished to the Census Bureau is kept confidential under Federal law. Only statistical totals and averages are published. No individual person can be identified iin published reports and census information cannot be used for regulation, investigation, or taxation.

CHEVROLET

"Worst roads in the world, but this new Chevy takes all the roughness out!"

Out near Wathena, Kansas, farmer Milt Roundy tends 800 acres with only one helper—his 1960 Chevrolet pickup. The truck almost never runs on Kansas's fine state highways—instead it averages about 2,500 miles a month on unimproved back-country trails or on hauls into the fields, off the road. "In my book, these are the worst roads in the world," Mr. Roundy says, "but this new Chevy takes all the roughness out. It doesn't fishtail or whip around like other trucks — I can steer it with one finger!"

They're speaking right up, these owners of '60 Chevrolets. Everywhere you go, they're giving out glowing reports on a revolutionary new truck ride that leads to a bigger day's work at less expense; praising truck power that knows the most about saving money. It's Chevy's total newness they're talking about. And you'll be talking, too, once you turn a new Chevrolet loose on your money runs. Your dealer can get you started, right away!

It takes Chevy's new Torsion-Spring Ride to smooth out a road like this!

Lamb Show Held Here Saturday Is Big Success

by Angus Dickson, Jr., County Agricultural Agent.

The Second Annual Comanche County Junior Commercial Lamb Show and Educational Livestock Market Study was completed Monday in Fort Worth.

At Saturday's showing of the lambs in Comanche, Judge Bob Chandler of Texas Livestock Marketing Association, Fort Worth, classified 241 head of lambs for 28 FFA and 4-H exhibitors. Chandler used three classifications and classified 88 head as fat lambs for blue ribbons, 74 as feeders for red ribbons, and 79 as stockers for white ribbons. The exhibitors had an option on their stocker lambs—to send them to market with the others, or hold them for a longer period.

Ben T. Newby, superintendent, and "Moe" Klingenber, yardmaster, both of Fort Worth Stockyards Company, were principal speakers at the annual sheepherders luncheon here Saturday, and were hosts at the Fort Worth market study along with Texas Livestock Marketing Association. The Fort Worth hosts quartered the exhibitors at the Westbrook Hotel during their 2-day educational market study.

The 35 Comanche County exhibitors and adult sponsors for the trip were guests of Ft. Worth Stockyards Company President John Lewiis, Sunday night, at the "Planetarium" with Dr. Cole putting on the program.

1960 Show Superintendent Weldon Kirby and Assistant Superintendent Herman Sparkman presented ribbons at the Saturday noon luncheon here.

If we made Gladiola Flour for Sweet, Ida...

we could afford to relax a little

... but we make it for you

The best home bakers in America live in Gladiola Land (it's just a mite bigger than Texas). To make flour that's good enough for these ladies, you really have to keep your nose to the grindstone.

We don't mind, though. Every day, year after year, snow-white Gladiola Flour outsells every other brand. For biscuits, pies and cakes with a nationwide reputation, no other flour will do.

As for Sweet, Ida., ladies—they'll never know what you know about flour quality. This, for instance: Gladiola Flour costs your family only about ½¢ a day more than the cheapest flour made.

"KING WILLIAM THE FIRST"—Pilcture shows Rev. Jesse Allon Tiner with "King William The First," who is the chosen king of Jesse's Booster-Bands for the Year of Our Lord 1960. The little king, who is the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tyson of De Leon, is now representing the Boosters for the Easter season. The beautiful prize which they hold is a "Boundless Fortune" (God's Holy Word.) With it the little king can overcome evil, and be a prince among men, and can win a crown of life. King William The First is a fine little Booster, a nice little king, and a dandy little friend, Jesse says.

King William The First has a heart of joy,
He is six years old, and of ideal size;
King William The First is a little boy
Who has everything we can love and prize.
King William The First is greatly blest!
He reigns serene o'er his happy land,
He holds no scruples in his little breast,
He's a chosen king of the Booster-Band.

icant's plan of operation for the following: (1) 31 acres and put in cul- . (2) Pasture seeding of to oats and vetch each grazing. (3) Seeding of for maximum summer on 65 acres. (4) Cross o be construcoted in per- pasture for better utilize- grasses. (5) All barnyard to be spread annually on

Estate Improvements: to be repaired by do- following: construct a porch, hardwood floors bedrooms, remove and re- roof, paint exterior, add two window units and replace two screen doors with new ones. Work was accomplished by the family.

Plans were to build the dairy herd up to 50 cows and keep heifers from best cows in the herd for replacement.

Gilbreath is properly equipped for operating his 160 acre dairy farm, as the farm has all modern dairy equipment, manure spreader, grain drill, tractor and equipment, bulk milk tank, stock pond has been completed, new corals and loading chute have been added this year.

The home is neat and attractive, has all modern furniture and equipment. A home freezer is a part of Mrs. Gilbreath's modern kitchen equipment which is filled with home produced fruits, vegetables and meat. The farmstead is fenced, and the yard has been landscaped with flowers and shrubs.

Recently a review was made of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbreath's 1959 farming operations, and their records revealed that all planned development and purchases had been made. They now own 50 dairy cows, 19 heifers kept as replacement and their net worth has increased from $5,515 in 1957 to $19,612 as of December, 1959.

Records of production kept for 1959 revealed that 38 cows in the barn produced 465,261 pounds of milk, or an average of 12,243 pounds of milk per animal. Records are being maintained on each individual cow, and Gilbreath has his herd on D.H.I.A.

Gilbreath works in close cooperation with the Upper Leon Soil Conservation District. Terraces are being maintained in a good state of repair, three year rotation plan is being followed, all fields are being faremd on the contour, pasture seeding, and a pond tank have been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbreath and young son David are active in community activities. Gilbreath is song leader at the Edna Hill Baptist Church, and Mrs. Gilbreath teaches a Sunday School Class. The Gilbreaths' take part in the Community Club at the Edna Hill community. Gilbreath is vice-president of the club. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbreath are interested in better schools, better churches, and they devote their time and efforts to these worthwhile institutions.

From The Kitchens of Gladiola Flour

Perhaps nothing else gives more improtance to even the simplest of meals than the adition of a hot bread, and at the top of the list, so far as I'm concerned, are good homemade hot biscuits . . . light, fluffy, tender and deliciously brown . . . making any meal a feast. Maybe it's because they show the loving care and thoughtfulness that went into their making, but they're just plain good, too. "Take two and butter 'em while they're hot!".

Naturally it takes good ingredients to make good biscuits and the flour is of prime importance, simply because it is the chief ingredient. For dependability and fine quality I recommend you make your next biscuits with Gladiola Flour and Gladiola Baking Powder. We believe you'll see the difference. They're made to such exacting standards you're assured the highest quality in your baked goods every time.

The secret of most baking powder breads is in mixing them quickly and in not handling them too much. With biscuits, though, you'll find you need to stir the ough well, and to knead it lightly (that means with the fingertips or very lightly with the palms) just until the dough is smooth, usually about 18 or 20 kneadling strokes. It takes that to distribute all ingredients and to produce evenly brown tops with no "freckles" to mar their beauty.

For ease of handling we recommen a pastry blender for cutting in the shortening., inxepensive and so handy. Then, too, a pastry cloth and a knit cover for your rolling pin prevent sticking and make the dough much easier to handle. Do try them, but with or without these added conveniences, you'll like

GLADIOLA BISCUITS
(They melt in your mouth)
2 cups sifted Gladiola Flour
3 teaspoons Gladiola Baking Pwd.
⅓ cup shotening
1 teaspoon salt
⅞ cup milk

Gladiola Self-Rising Flour use omit baking powder and alt.

Sift flour, measure and sift again with baking powder and salt. Cut or rub shortening until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Add enough milk (the exact amout varies a little from time to time) to make a soft dough that can be handled. Turn dough onto a lightly floure surface, sprinkle with a little flour and knead lightly about 3 seconds. Roll or pat out to 1-2 inch thickness, fold in half and roll out again to 1-2 inch thickness, fold in hif and roll again to 1-2 inch thickness. (For thin crisp biscuits, roll 1-4 inch thick.

Cut with floured cutter and place biscuits 1 inch apart; if soft sides are preferred, let the biscuits touch. Bake in a very hot oven (450 to 475 degrees) 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown. Makes 14 two inch biscuits.

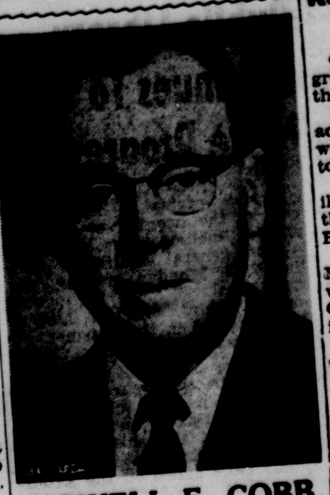

Buttermilk Biscuits: Reduce baking powder to 2 teaspoons and stir 1-2 teaspoon soda into 3-4 cup buttermilk or sour milk; add more milk; add more milk if needed to mke a soft dough. To make sour milk from sweet milk, put 1½ tablespoons lemon juice or vinegar into measuring cup, fill cup wit milk, stir nd let stand 5 minutes.

Today but few of the people who do not belong to any church ever attend a revival.

It is not for us to say which method is better than the other, although we believe that people of today are just as religious as they were in the olden days, and perhaps more so. We have many more youths who work in the church today the year around than we use to.

* *

But the revival season is now on in Comanche County, regardless of how we appraise the time or place. And if the preacher has a smaller number present today than he formerly had, he probably has just as many or more members present who need reviving as he did in the days gone before when many people took off for two weeks to attend some "camp meeting" with just the men folks going home at sometime during the day to attend to the milking and feeding.

Even the men were back to spend the night in the camp ground, and usually got there in time for the "grove meeting" when the men met in one area of the woods to pray, sing, and talk to God; while the women did the same in another section.

* *

All then were spiritually ready when the main service started a little after dark. Sometimes at the night service, the spiritual feeling was so high, that the sermon was omitted and the altar services started at on?ce with praying and singing, and exhorting, everyone following the dictates of his own feeling.

* *

The old time revivals not only aroused spiritual emotions, as Higgs pointed out, but it was also the time when the boys with new buggiese and a fine horse, would have an opportunity to visit their best girls through the weeks as well as on Sunday. You see that there is no end of benefits about a revival.

* *

Sometimes when we get to thinking about the old time revival, we begin to wonder whatever became of the shouting habit.

There was a time when a few of the regular attendants at the summer revivals would become so enthused that they found it difficult to contain themselves. In fact, some of them would get so emotionally aroused that they would begin shouting and clapping their hands and praying in such loud tones that they could be heard for miles.

The shouting was often contagious and would break out in every section of the tabernacle, although there were some of the most religious members who never engaged in shouting; but they never criticised the others, or ever doubted that the grace of God was abiding with them.

* *

But when the shouting started during the meeting, the scheduled part often went ahead as arranged. The organ would play louder to meet the competition with shouters and the preacher would preach louder and plead for those who were "lost in sin" to come forward and ask forgiveness.

* *

Often one proposition after another would be submitted by the evangelist, and personal workers would begin begging and pleading with their friends and relatives, and sometimes a husband would walk the trail towards the altar.

* *

Sometimes a man under conviction would begin praying for himself in such loud tones that neighbors would gather around him and join him in prayer and the entire audience would be moved to tears.

* *

There was no doubt about the sincerity of those meetings. Any man or woman who grew up in the county around the turn of the century and even as late as the early 20's, have observed these experiences and will vouch for them.

* *

Higgs says that he always has thought that we lost something when these old time revivals passed out of the picture of spiritual operation.

* *

These old revivals accomplished much in their day and helped in so many ways the important tasking of keeping alive the fires of enthusiasm that was needed to maintain the churches.

* *

Like the method of farming, the method of traveling, the method of operation of churches has changed.

* *

It is pointed out that today the church members are more loyal to the financial requirements of the church and to the program of worship an dother affairs of the modern church.

* *

The church congregations, as a whole, are larger in spite of the competition of so many other forms of community activities.

* *

Despite the large number of rural churches that have been abandoned ini Comanche County, the Baptists have more churches in the county than ever before—a total of 35 with most of them having preaching every Sunday.

* *

The membership in the other churches in the county is proportionately greater, taking into consideration the fact that the Comanche County population has dropped from a maximum of 27,000 in 1910 to around 13,000 today.

* *

Despite the decrease in population in the county, the church buildings in the county today are much finer than the neglected church buildings of the days gone by.

* *

When yop pass one of these modern church buildings out in the country today and think of some of the old dilapidated structures we use to worship in, we are reminded that many people are putting God first, as far as spending money on His house of worship is concerned.

* *

Comanche County has a right to be proud of our church buildings of today and of the fine people who make up their membership. Good churches and good schools make for good homes, and these three are the very foundations of our modern civilization.

When these are lost all is lost, but as long as these three are strong, we have nothing to fear, either from the Russians or the devil, and maybe we can convert the Russians to Christianity, if not the devil.

Johnston pointed out that carrying charges will be added to the sales price, beginning with 10 points in October 1960, and increasing 20 points per month for each month thereafter to a makimum of 190 points in July 1961. The current monthly increase for carrying charges is 15 poiints per month for each month after October 1959.

More About Cotton

In order to boost U.S. exports and get back a fair share of the world market for American grown cotton our Government is going to pay about $30 per bale subsidy on all cotton exported from the United States and sold in the Free World tradte. This is done so that cotton grown here can compete with foreign grown lower priced cotton in the Free World Market.

Every farmer is urged to plant his entire cotton allotment. If you have turned in your acreage or want more acreage, you must sign up at once, for April 8 is the deadline that requests for aditional cotton acreage can be made.

INSTANT TONIC

Back in the old days a thing called a "tonic cup" was a favorite remedy for almost anything that ailed you. Cheap, too. You took a cup made of bitter wood . . . added hot water . . . let it steep. Then, when bitter, you drank it. Simple? Yes. Too bad it didn't do any good. Nowadays science gives us more reliable medications. So, play safe. When you or a member of your family is ill, seek professional care. See your physician for diagnosing and prescribing . . . call us for prescription service.
